

2011 Fall Fun Fellowship

HALOween!

This year's Fall Fun Fellowship is going to be an explosive time! Literally! Our theme this year is Halo, one of the best video games of all time! Join us on October 14-16 for great events like Grif Ball, the Shoty Sniper Challenge, a screening of Halo Legends, and even a Halo tournament!

So your not a Halo fan? That's ok because were going to have our Golden Arrow competition, awesome food, movies Friday and Saturday night, and (weather permitting) a float trip down the Tippecanoe River! Also we're having an old fashion hog roast Saturday night for supper!

So bring your tents and come on out to Camp Buffalo on October 14, 15, and 16 and join us for HALOween! The cost this years for the whole weekend is just $25.

New this year is a special 1 day fee if you want to attend just Saturday; The cost for Saturday is $14. Registration will be from 7-9pm on Friday and 8-9am on Saturday.

If you have any questions call or email one of the persons below.

PRE-REGISTRATION INFO:

Send pre-registration to or call the Kokomo Office by Oct. 7th. Registration made after that date or at the door will incur a $5 late fee.
